Busia's 'Mary and Joseph' draw in pilgrims from entire continent

• Judith Njiru, a member of the group that organised the event, says she has seen a lot of people who have been drawn to the event by the light and heavenly voice.
• Locals call it the 'Miracles of Mary and Joseph' because of the many pilgrims from across the continent.

MARY NJIRU, 32
I was inspired by the 'Miracles of Mary and Joseph' when I was in the United States. I had read about the event and was inspired by the many pilgrims who had come to the event. I decided to bring it to Kenya.

The poster shows a scene with a woman and a man, likely Mary and Joseph, surrounded by children. The scene is set in a rural, outdoor environment. The poster is titled 'Miracles of Mary and Joseph' and features a large, colorful illustration of the figures. The text on the poster describes the event and the miracles associated with it.
